

Preparation for a Job Interview

Course Description

Interviews are two-way processes, where the employer and the interviewee can both decide if they are a good fit. This micro course will provide you with some useful tips for how to prepare for an interview including preparing answers to common questions.

The course also covers other things to consider in advance of the interview including planning how you will get there. It briefly covers some of the key differences between online and face to face interviews.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, you will :

- Be fully prepared to attend a job interview whether face to face or online and recognise the similarities and differences between these scenarios.
- Understand to importance of preparation including travel plans, appearance, items that you need to bring and questions at the interview.
- Be able to tackle questions asked of you through effective planning and rehearsal.

Target Audience

This course is aimed at people who are starting out in their careers or those who might need to refresh their interview skills after being out of the workforce for a long time.

Advantages

Online training is flexible, efficient and cost effective meaning the candidate can progress through the modules at their own pace and in their own time, so they can fit the training around their work and personal life.
